

artMob Meeting Notes

6-12-2013

Attendance: George Thorn (consultant), Beth Ragel (staff liaison), Jeff Davis, Kara Busick, Val Hubbard. James Fossen, Lisa Fossen, Lori Berant (possible new members.) Absent: Lars Campbell and Elyssa Thelin.

Meeting started at 5:45pm

Prior Meetings were approved

General Announcements

- Chris Haberman finished a mural at Milwaukie High School's Health Center
- Sculpture RFP was sent out with the theme of "People" with an early submission deadline

Networking Event

- Networking event on July 5th – 7:30pm to 9:00pm approximately 30 people
- Kara and Val will work on food/Jeff will take care of the wine/Val will make sure we have name tags/Jeff will be the moderator/Lisa and James will work on performances to occur every 30 minutes/Beth will contact someone for a poetry reading. Door Prizes Kara
- Suggestion to start conversation was to have some ice breaking questions such as "What is your favorite neighborhood and why"
- James and Lisa will bring their PA.
- Invitations to City Council to the event will be given to them at the council meeting on 6/18

Work Reports

- PNCA, Beth will be meeting with Peter Schoonmaker on Friday 6/14 at 10:15a
- Discuss some Problem Statements "What does and how do you increase Arts and Culture"/"How to find the brand and then what"/Can they help with the Master Plan, George thought this was a good idea.
- Engage influential people within the city, keep those informed on what artMob is doing. Val-Gamba, Churchhill, Ray@ Windhorse/Jeff-Joann, Chief Jordan and Bill/Kara-Hedges. Beth will put together some economic figures of what arts and culture can bring to the city.

Social Media

- ETSY, Val will research to see if we can dig up other artist
- Kara and Beth will work on Social Media

Misc

- George said in Tuscon the city had to have someone from the arts and culture community on the committee for every project even if it was a sewer plant.
- City Council Meeting on 6/18 at 5:30pm. Beth will present accomplishments and goals going forward
- Everyone to work on their work plans and email them to Beth.